Hi, we're Steel & Metal Agencies, and we're delighted to meet you.

It was the year 2006. Late Sheikh Shoaib Akbari, a well established trader in the industry for over 40 years, realized that there was a gap in the market for cost effective, functional construction solutions. Having identified the growing demand in this segment, he embarked on a journey to pursue his vision of creating an accessible platform that would enable companies and individuals alike to bring their construction dreams to life, without compromising on quality. This is how Steel & Metal Agencies (SMA) was born.

After more than 15 years in business, today, SMA has made a name for itself as a pioneer in the construction industry. Led by our CEO, Taha Akbari, SMA has stayed relevant with evolving market trends, and has also grown to offer it's ever increasing customer base a well balanced mix of brands and products in the roofing and structural steel segments with solutions for all building needs.

We've only been able to grow from strength to strength because of our flexibility and agility in business, as well as the love and support from our clients, along with our team who are in-tune with the latest in the market, in order to offer the right products to meet customer requirements.

Our core mission, vision and values drive us to always strive for nothing short of being the only brand that customers can think of for their construction needs. Here's how they set us apart:

OUR MISSION

In any business, customer satisfaction is the key to growth. At Steel & Metal Agencies, we put our customers first. Our mission is to offer supreme quality combined with on-time delivery in a committed time frame and competitive price range. On the other end, we are committed to ensuring that our team is consistently updated and made aware of changing technologies and products in order to stay ahead of competition.

OUR VISION

For us, the ultimate measure of success lies in Steel & Metal Agencies being recognized as the foremost brand that comes to mind as a one stop shop for all building and construction related raw material requirements, along with allied products, accessories and services. With our recent foray into fabrication of roofing structures, we are confident that we will be able to offer a holistic construction solutions suite, and look forward to achieving immense success with your extended support, cooperation and continued patronage.

OUR VALUES

We are driven by the values of Honesty, Integrity and Uncompromising Product Quality. This is why, in a very short span of time, Steel & Metal Agencies has joined the ranks of leading names in the industry and has achieved tremendous growth. Our products are acquired from leading manufacturers across the country and we deliver throughout India. We strictly adhere to all the quality guidelines and standards, empowering us to assure our customers that all dispatched products from SMA rigorously meet International Quality Standards.
